PROCLAMATION
In Recognition of American Education Week

WHEREAS, American Education Week is an opportunity to recognize the accomplishments and the needs of our local public schools; and

WHEREAS, Our public schools have enabled generations of American families to build upon the lessons of the past to achieve the dreams of tomorrow; and

WHEREAS, America's system of public education relies not only on the skills and dedication of teachers, school administrators and educational support staff, but also on the encouragement and support of the entire community; and

WHEREAS, The local members of the Missouri State Teachers Association and the National Education Association are joining teachers, students, and educational organizations around the nation in special activities in honor of American Education Week.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jim Collins, Mayor of the City of Republic, Missouri, along with members of the local Community Teachers Association and the Republic Education Association am asking parents, students and civic leaders to join in the nation's annual salute to public education during the week of November 12th through 18th, 2006, and do hereby proclaim this week to be "American Education Week" in the City of Republic, Missouri.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the City of Republic, this 13th day of November, A.D. 2006.

Jim Collins, Mayor
